San Joaquin Literacy Directory

Preface

Now in its fourth edition, the San Joaquin Literacy Directory is intended to provide families, social-service professionals, and educators with accurate and comprehensive information about literacy services in our county.

A brief explanation of the set-up of the directory may be useful. It is organized under three categories: Birth to Kindergarten; Kindergarten to 8th Grade; and 9th Grade to Adult. Entries within each of the three categories are in alphabetical order. Additional information about the programs has been placed in an appendix.

This year's edition of the Directory is dedicated to our friend and colleague, Bonnie Ruth Scott, who was the graphic artist for our first three editions. Bonnie died suddenly in the spring. Her humor, warmth, and creativity were remarkable and will be sorely missed. We are grateful for the encouragement and financial support provided by Dr. Kathy Hart, Superintendent/President of San Joaquin Delta College and by the Board of Trustees—Taj Khan, President; Steve Castellanos, Vice-President; Claudia Moreno, Clerk; Dr. Teresa Brown; Janet Rivera; Jennet Stebbins; and Lisa Turner.

We hope the directory will contribute to the efforts of parents, social-service professionals, educators, and community leaders to create a vibrant support network for San Joaquin County children so they can develop a love of reading and succeed in school.

San Joaquin Literacy Directory

Message from San Joaquin Delta College President Kathy Hart on Behalf of the Board of Trustees:

As educators and those who work on behalf of the public to support community college education, the Board and I know how desperately our community needs resources to improve literacy at all levels. This literacy directory goes a long way toward providing a quick, easy way to access these literacy resources. We hope that our support of the printing and production of this literacy directory helps you find the programs and services that you and your family need to improve the reading, writing, and language skills of yourselves and your children. Delta College is proud to support Mr. Sam Hatch, Ms. Michele Marta, and Ms. Eileen Thomas, Delta College faculty and staff, and Dr. Robert Morrow, professor emeritus in the Gladys Benerd School of Education at the University of the Pacific. Volunteers all, they have worked tirelessly and diligently to put the directory together for the benefit of you and your family.

Additional Information:

The Adult Literacy Program provides one-on-one reading tutoring for adults ages 16 and older. This free, confidential service provides reading instruction for English-speaking adults. The schedule is flexible, but there is a three-hour per week time commitment for six months. Volunteer literacy tutors are 18 years old and older. Tutors are trained and supervised by library staff. Tutors also have a three-hour per week, six-month commitment. The primary source of training materials comes from Laubach Literacy Action, an international adult literacy program. Other materials are used as needed. There is no charge for services, and the program is available at all San Joaquin County branch libraries.

San Joaquin Literacy Directory

Acknowledgments

Dedication to Bonnie Ruth Scott, artist and friend

This year's edition is dedicated to the late Bonnie Ruth Scott, professor of graphic arts at Delta College. The San Joaquin Literacy Directory owes a great deal to Bonnie's creativity and hard work. Those of us who knew her as friend will always feel grateful.

We are also grateful to Delta College Board of Trustees—Taj Khan, President, Steve Castellanos, Vice-President, Claudia Moreno, Clerk, Dr. Teresa Brown; Janet Rivera; Jennet Stebbins; and Lisa Turner—for their support. Without the generosity of Dr. Kathy Hart, Superintendent-President of San Joaquin Delta College, this directory could not have been published. We are fortunate to have two other generous grants: one from UOP's Beyond Our Gates (facilitated by Jennifer Torres Siders) and the other from Professor Vickey Aubrey of Delta College. We are thankful for all our donors.

We appreciate the kindness of Elizabeth O. Dulemba in allowing us to use her illustrations. We also thank Gil Vanover and his staff in the San Joaquin Delta College Publication Center for their expert printing of the directory.

This directory would not have been compiled without the commitment and assistance of Bob Morrow of Bring Me A Book, and two Delta College faculty members, Michele Marta and Sam Hatch. A special thanks also goes to another Delta colleague, Eileen Thomas, who designed this year's directory. We appreciate the support of former Stockton Mayor Ann Johnston, Lani Schiff-Ross of First Five San Joaquin, and Jamie Baiocchi of the San Joaquin County Office of Education. All three were encouraging from the earliest stages of this project.

We would like to expand our listings

If you represent an agency or know of one that provides no-cost or low-cost literacy services, please contact Sam Hatch (shatch@deltacollege.edu) or Michele Marta (mmarta@deltacollege.edu). We would like to include as many literacy service programs as we can.

Permission to Post and Reprint the San Joaquin Literacy Directory

Any organization in San Joaquin County concerned with promoting literacy and the welfare of children is welcome to post the Literacy Directory. We would be happy to send you the pdf. If you or your organization would like to reprint the Directory, please contact Sam Hatch at shatch@deltacollege.edu or samhatch@sonic.net. Permission will be granted as long as the Directory is reprinted without changes and distributed free of charge.
