

ROAR

“The Five Fabulous Phrases” that can change the world!

“Please,”

“Thank you!”

“You’re welcome,”

“Excuse Me” and

“I’m Sorry, Will You Forgive Me?”

We use kind words—not hurting, rude or disrespectful words.

We want to build people up—not tear them down.

We always tell the truth—the whole truth and nothing but the truth!

We remember to raise our hand when we need our teachers attention.

We remember to use our Indoor Voice when we are inside a classroom!

When we talk to each other, we show respect by looking into the other persons eyes and being a good listener.

We show respect to our school by keeping it nice and clean.

When we meet new people we remember to:

1. Look directly into their eyes.
2. Smile & be friendly.
3. Shake hands firmly!
4. Say “Hi! Nice to meet you!”
5. Introduce yourself and take turns speaking with each other.
